

LEARNING ENGLISH GRAMMAR ONLINE

Exercises on Modal Verbs

Modal verbs can be confusing to comprehend. That is why Edulyte's mentors have created worksheets with exercises on modal verbs with answers. Go head and benefit from the worksheet for modal verbs.

What are modal verbs?

These are verbs used to talk about intent, ability, possibility, permission, and obligation. They act like auxiliary verbs. Modal verbs are used with the main verb in a sentence.

Examples of modal verbs

Could, might, may, can, would, must, and should are some of the modal verbs.

Examples:

May I have a cup of coffee?

“May” is used for making a request in the sentence.

I can dance and sing.

“Can” signifies an ability.

You must submit your project report by noon.

“Must” is used for commanding or stating an obligation in the sentence.

Conclusion

Modal verbs are significant for anyone who wishes to be competent in reading, writing, speaking and understanding the English language. Given below are exercises on modal verbs. With the given exercises on modals with answers you would no longer be overwhelmed handling these verbs. To learn English in a stress-free manner, book your personalised English classes with EduLyte and benefit from flexible learning with verified tutors. Choose a one-on-one class or a small group to excel in English conversational skills, English proficiency test prep, Essay Writing and more.

Exercises on Modal verbs

Choose the suitable modals from the list given below and complete the sentences.

must	should	could	might	will may	would	cannot	must	must

1. All students _____ submit their assignments by the end of the class.
2. You _____ stop smoking because it is injurious to your health.
3. Before we enter anyone's room, we must ask for permission, by asking the question, " _____ I come in?"
4. Shane _____ cook, so she ordered food from a restaurant for her guests.
5. By the time she was 10 years old, she _____ speak 5 languages
6. _____ you mind passing the water bottle?
7. The patient _____ take his medicines as he is unwell.
8. I am not sure, but it _____ rain today as the sky is cloudy.
9. He _____ visit New Delhi next week as his tickets are confirmed.
10. We _____ always follow the traffic rules.

Answers

1. All students must submit their assignments by the end of the class.
2. You should stop smoking because it is injurious to your health.
3. Before we enter anyone's room, we must ask for permission, by asking the question, " May I come in?"
4. Shane cannot cook, so she ordered food from a restaurant for her guests.
5. By the time she was 10 years old, she could speak 5 languages.
6. Would you mind passing the water bottle?
7. The patient must take his medicines as he is unwell.
8. I am not sure, but it might rain today as the sky is cloudy.
9. He will visit New Delhi next week as his tickets are confirmed.
10. We must always follow the traffic rules.

Learn English Online

Book your personalised, effective and flexible classes. Start learning live on video calls.

Find classes